Foreword

The newly established Office of Institutional Research is pleased to present the Boston College Fact Book, 2004-2005, the 32nd edition of this publication.

This book is intended as a single, readily accessible, consistent source of information about the Boston College Community, its resources, and its operations. It is a summary of institutional data gathered from many areas of the University, compiled to capture the 2003-2004 Fiscal and Academic Year, and the fall semester of the 2004-2005 Academic Year. Where appropriate, multiple years of data are provided for historical perspective. It is not all encompassing but will provide pertinent facts and figures valuable to administrators, faculty, staff, and students alike.

Sincere appreciation is extended to all contributors who offered their time and expertise to maintain the greatest possible accuracy and standardization of their data. We are indebted to IR staff members Jessica Greene, Carol Pepin, and Margaret Ryan for their assistance and input. A special thank you is also extended to graduate students, Jackie Gould and Thomas McGuinness, for their diligence and attention to detail.

A concerted effort is made to make this publication an increasingly more useful reference, at the same time enhancing your understanding of the scope and progress of the University. We welcome your comments and suggestions toward that goal.

This fact book, as well as those from previous years, is available in its entirety at http://www.bc.edu/factbook.

The Mission of Boston College

Strengthened by more than a century and a quarter of dedication to academic excellence, Boston College commits itself to the highest standards of teaching and research in undergraduate, graduate, and professional programs and to the pursuit of a just society through its own accomplishments, the work of its faculty and staff, and the achievements of its graduates. It seeks both to advance its place among the nation's finest universities and to bring to the company of its distinguished peers and to contemporary society the richness of the Catholic intellectual ideal of a mutually il

Boston College draws inspiration for its academic and societal mission from its distinctive religious tradition. As a Catholic and Jesuit university, it is rooted in a world view that encounters God in all creation and through all human activity, especially in the search for truth in every discipline, in the desire to learn, and in the call to live justly together. In this spirit, the University regards the contribution of different religious traditions and value systems as essential to the fullness of its intellectual life and to the continuous development of its distinctive intellectual heritage.

Boston College pursues this distinctive mission by serving society in three ways:

A Brief History of Boston College

Boston College was founded by the Society of Jesus in 1863, and is one of twenty-eight Jesuit colleges and universities in the United States. With three teachers and twenty-two students, the school opened its doors on September 5, 1864. At the outset and for more than seven decades of its first century, the college remained an exclusively liberal arts institution with emphasis on the Greek and Latin classics, English and modern languages and with more attention to philosophy than to the physical or social sciences. Religion, of course, had its place in the classroom as well as in the nonacademic life of the college.

Originally located on Harrison Avenue in the South End of Boston, where it shared quarters with the Boston College High School, the College outgrew its urban setting toward the end of its first fifty years. A new location was selected in Chestnut Hill, then almost rural, and four parcels of land were acquired in 1907. A design competition for the development of the campus was won by the firm of Maginnis and Walsh, and ground was broken on June 19, 1909, for the construction of Gasson Hall. It is located on the site of the Lawrence farmhouse, in the center of the original tract of land purchased by Father Gasson, and is built largely of stone taken from the surrounding property.

Later purchases doubled the size of the property, with the addition of the upper campus in 1941, and the lower campus with the acquisition of the Lawrence Basin and adjoining land in 1949. In 1974 Boston College acquired Newton College of the Sacred Heart, a mile-and-a-half from the main campus. With fifteen buildings standing on forty acres, it is now the site of the Boston College Law School and residence halls housing 800 freshmen.

Though incorporated as a university since its beginning, it was not until its second half-century that Boston College began to fill out the dimensions of its charter. The Summer Session was inaugurated in 1924; the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences in 1925; the Law School, 1929; the Evening College, 1929; the Graduate School of Social Work, 1936; the College of Business Administration, 1938. The latter, along with its Graduate School established in 1957, is now known as The Wallace E. Carroll School of Management. The Schools of Nursing and Education were founded in 1947 and 1952, respectively and are now known as the William F. Connell School of Nursing and the Carolyn A. and Peter S. Lynch School of Education. Weston Observatory, founded in 1928, became a department of Boston College in 1947, offering courses in geophysics and geology.

The Graduate School of Arts and Sciences began programs at the doctoral level in 1952. Now courses leading to the doctorate are offered by twelve Arts and Sciences departments. The Schools of Education and Nursing, the Carroll Graduate School of Management, and the Graduate School of Social Work also offer doctoral programs.

In 1927 Boston College conferred one earned bachelor's degree and fifteen master's degrees on women through the Extension Division, the precursor of the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, the Evening College, and the Summer Session. By 1970 all undergraduate programs had become coeducational. Today women students comprise more than half of the University's enrollment.

In 1996 the Evening College became the College of Advancing Studies, offering a master's degree as well as the bachelor's degree; in 2002 the College was renamed the Woods College of Advancing Studies. In July 1996, the University's longest presidency, 24 years, came to an end when Father J. Donald Monan became chancellor and was succeeded in the presidency by Father William P. Leahy.

During the decade of the nineties, the University completed several major construction projects, including the expansion and renovation of Higgins Hall, the updating of residence halls on the upper campus and Newton campus; and the construction of a new office building for faculty and administration on lower campus. These projects provided oncampus housing for more than 80% of the college undergraduates.

In recent years, major advances have also occurred in student selectivity, as well as faculty research. Between 1996 and 2003, freshman applications increased from 16,501 to 22,424, and the middle range SAT scores of admitted students increased from 1200-1340 to 1260-1390. During this same period, the dollar amount of sponsored project awards received by the University more than doubled.

Since 1996, the University's endowment has grown from $590 million to approximately $1.2 billion, the result of successful investment strategies and the Ever to Excel campaign, which surpassed its original $300 million goal and raised more than $440 million in gifts from approximately 90,000 donors. A milestone in the history of the University took place on June 29, 2004, when Boston College acquired 43 acres of land and five buildings in Brighton previously owned by the Archdiocese of Boston, making it possible for Boston College to expand its campus well into the future.

Digital Library Services

Quest: The Library Information System

Quest, the Libraries' web-based integrated system, provides convenient access to the Libraries' collections, digital resources, and services from www.bc.edu/quest. It offers a variety of methods for finding books, periodicals, media resources, microforms, newspapers, and electronic materials.

Quest can easily be searched from any web browser regardless of platform or location 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Users can interact with the system and receive immediate feedback on the status of requests; they can place a hold, recall or request rush processing for a new book right from their desktop. Users can also initiate and track requests for document delivery and interlibrary loan transactions, and may renew materials that are currently charged to them. The web interface and expanded cataloging capabilities allow unprecedented access to thousands of web accessible scholarly resources, to full text journals and to digital collections of photographs and other material.

Digital Resources

The Boston College Libraries offer access to a rich collection of electronic indexes and databases. A growing number of these databases include full text access to thousands of books and journals directly from the researcher's desktop. See the list of Online Databases on the Libraries' home page, <code>www.bc.edu/libraries.html</code>to get a sense of the range of resources. The list includes groupings by subject and an alphabetical listing by title. Databases range in coverage from very general to very specific and cover a wide range of research areas in the humanities, social sciences, sciences, health sciences, business law, and public affairs. Most databases can be reached directly by clicking on the web links. Others can be accessed in the O'Neill Library Reference area or the Law Library. An expanding number of links to electronic journals may also be found by selecting Electronic Journals from the Libraries' home page. The libraries have also introduced technologies that provide links between the databases and e-journal collections, http://www.bc.edu/libraries/resources/databases/s-sfxfaq/. Most databases available through the Boston College Libraries are restricted to the Boston College community. Your BC username and password are needed to access these databases from off campus.

The Libraries also support an expanding digital collection of special and rare materials such as the Thomas P. O'Neill, Jr. Photographs, the Liturgy and Life Artifacts collection and the Boston Gas Company Photographs via the John J. Burns Library Rare Books and Special Collections web page: http://www.bc.edu/libraries/centers/burns/resources/digitalcoll/

Librarians offer classes in how to search databases effectively, by arrangement with professors, and also provide individual coaching at various library services points or by appointment. Researchers who cannot locate resources needed may contact a librarian to develop a search strategy to locate relevant information. See the list of Subject Bibliographers to know which librarian to contact. http://www.bc.edu/libraries/services/ref-instruc/s-subjectspec/

Interlibrary Loan

An Interlibrary Loan Service is offered to students, faculty, administrators, and staff to obtain research materials not available in the Boston College Libraries. Books, journal articles, microfilm, theses and

John J. Burns Library of Rare Books and Special Collections

The University's special collections, including the University's Archives, are housed in the Honorable John J. Burns Library, located in the Bapst Library Building, north entrance. These distinguished and varied collections speak eloquently of the University's commitment to the preservation and dissemination of human knowledge. The Burns Library is home to more than 150,000 volumes, some 15,000,000 manuscripts, and important collections of architectural records, maps, art works, photographs, films, prints, artifacts, and ephemera. These materials are housed in the climatecontrolled, secure environment of Burns either because of their rarity or because of their importance as part of a special collection. While treated with special care, these resources are available for use at Burns to all qualified students, faculty, and researchers. Indeed, their use is strongly encouraged, and visitors to Burns are always welcome, either simply to browse or to make use of the collections.

Though its collections cover virtually the entire spectrum of human knowledge, the Burns Library has achieved international recognition in several specific areas of research, most notably: Irish studies; British Catholic authors; Jesuitana; Fine Print; Catholic liturgy and life in America, 1925-1975; Boston history; the Caribbean, especially Jamaica; Balkan studies; Nursing; and Congressional archives. It has also won acclaim for significant holdings on American detective fiction, Thomas Merton, Japanese prints, Colonial and early Republic Protestantism, and banking. To learn more about specific holdings in Burns, please see www.bc.edu/burns

The John J Burns Library is open Monday through Friday, 9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. The Library is closed on all University holidays. Visitors are always welcome and are encouraged to visitor 758 Tc -0.0321 Tc -0.139

Information Technology Services

Information Technology Services manages Boston College's computing, communications, and electronic information resources, and working with key constituencies throughout the University, provides the leadership to shape future technology plans and strategies to meet the mission and goals of the University. The highly integrated Boston College campus technology environment provides voice, data, and cable television connections to classrooms, offices, and residence hall rooms. IT staff work to keep up with rapidly changing applications and technology infrastructure, providing faculty, staff and students with the tools and technologies needed to compete and succeed. As the development of Web-enabled services matures, BC continues providing new Web-based online services, such as enhanced email services, and personal information management options.

Exhibits at the McMullen Museum Academic Year 2004-2005

Fernand Khnopff: Inner Visions and Landscapes

September 19- December 5, 2004

Khnopff's striking compositions, marked by nearly photographic realism and enigmatic imagery stood out even in the bold avant-garde exhibitions of the late nineteenth century. This retrospective presented over eighty paintings and works on paper, many rarely exhibited and published, that span the career of this key figure in the European Symbolist movement. Included were Khnopff's most important works from the Royal Art Museums in Brussels and private collections in Belgium, Switzerland, France and the United States and well as two masterpieces that inspired Khnopff: James Ensor's The Russian Music and Dante Gabriel Rossetti's Rosa Triplex. Organized by Frederik Leen, the retrospective opened earlier at the Royal Museums of Fine Art in Brussels, where it attracted over 163,000 visitors and wide acclaim in the European media. Boston College was the only North American venue for the exhibition, which marked the tenth anniversary of the McMullen Museum. Accompanying the exhibition was an illustrated catalogue with essays by various scholars, including Jeffery. Howe of the Fine Arts Department, who is serving as curator at the McMullen.

Accommodations of Desire: Surrealist Works on Paper Collected by Julien Levy

January 16 - March 24, 2005

Surrealism, which dominated modern art in the 1930s and 1940s, attempted to reconcile the world of dreams and everyday reality into a radically creative superreality, or surreality Championing and representing this movement through its formative years, from 1931 to 1949 when the center of the cultural avant-garde shifted from Paris to New York, the Julien Levy Gallery in New York was a vital conduit for artistic exchange Levy gave several of the artists in this exhibition - Eugene Berman, Joseph Cornell, Salvador Dalí, Max Ernst, Léonor Fini, Man Ray, Dorothea Tanning, Roberto Matta, and Arshile Gorky – their first solo exhibitions in New York In presenting 115 works from Julien Levy's collection, Accommodations of Desire explored not only the dealer's historic role in the promotion of Surrealism, but also his zeal and affinity for the concepts and artists of the movement

Gone: Site Specific Works by Dorothy Cross

April 14 – July 12, 2005

Dorothy Cross was born in Cork in 1956, and has been creating sculpture, photography, and videos from her home base in Ireland for over 20 years. As the representative of Ireland in the 1993 Venice Biennale, and with her international solo exhibitions including venues in London, New York and Philadelphia, Cross has gained wide recognition for a body of work both local and global in its range of concerns as well as in its reception. Her interest in the complexities of place, in the poignancy of the abandoned and the ephemeral, has found expression in her temporary site-specific installations around the world. Coinciding with the major retrospective of Cross's career scheduled to open in June at the Irish Museum of Modern Art in Dublin, GONE: Site-specific Works by Dorothy Cross brings together for the first time documentary photographs, videos, and objects from nine of these projects. Presented as a whole, this body of work illuminates the double perspective from which Cross explores the local.

TREE A New Vision of the American Forest: Photographs by James Balog

April 14 - July 12, 2005

Transcending conventional nature photography, James Balog explores the changing character of the American forest in his photographs of "superlative trees" Often he focuses on a single concentrated frame, exposing complex and swirling details of ancient trees, "champions," as they are called by arboreal aficionados. He shows sculpturally elegant trees that have survived by sheer hardiness or luck. Borrowing from the cubist sensibility of Picasso and Braque and building upon the mosaic-assemblage technique pioneered by photographer David Hockney, his most recent photographs are produced using a digital multi-exposure method. Center for Corporate Citizenship

University Research Institutes and Centers

Center for Child, Family, and Community Partnerships

The Center for Child, Family and Community Partnerships is an "outreach scholarship" program that fosters collaboration among Boston College faculty, students and community leaders in health care, social service, economic development, and education. The goal of the participants is to create stronger, healthier, and more economically sound communities. The Center offers technical assistance, program evaluation, needs assessment, training, and consultation to community organizations.

Web site: http://www.csteep.bc.edu/ccfcp/.

Center for Corporate Citizenship at Boston College

The Center for Corporate Citizenship at Boston College engages with companies to redefine business success as creating measurable gains for business and society. Our vision is that business will use its assets to help assure economic prosperity and a just and sustainable world. The Center achieves results through the power of research, education and member engagement. The Center offers publications including a newsletter, research reports, and white papers; executive education, including a Certificate program; events that include an annual conference, roundtables and regional meetings; and a corporate membership program. Web site: http://www.bc.edu/corporatecitizenship

Center for East Europe, Russia, and Asia

The Center's programs encourage faculty and students to participate in interdepartmental endeavors on both the graduate and undergraduate levels. Participating faculty come from the Departments of Fine Arts, History, Philosophy, Political Science, Slavic and Eastern Languages, and Theology and offer over eighty academic courses connected with the study of the culture, history, and political life of East Europe, Russia, the Balkans, and Central Asia.

Center for Ignatian Spirituality

The Center for Ignatian Spirituality is a university operation that offers faculty and staff a resource to carry on the needed dialogue between the values that constitute Boston College and the pluralism that characterizes our contemporary culture. The Center initiates its own programs, inviting faculty and staff to pursue a particular topic; gives support to the Ignatian Society, a student group committed to integrating Ignatian spirituality into the lives of its members and offering other students opportunities to do the same; sponsors retreats and reflection opportunities for faculty and staff; and has a wide range of national and international commitments to other institutions in their efforts to integrate Ignatian spirituality into their educational endeavors. Web site: http://www.bc.edu/igspirit.

Center for International Higher Education(CIHE)

Established in 1995 and housed in the Lynch School of Education, CIHE is a research and service agency providing information, publications and a sense of community to colleges and universities worldwide. The main focus of the Center is on academic institutions in the Jesuit tradition, but other universities receive its publications and are part of an informal network. There is a special concern with the needs of academic institutions in the developing countries of the Third World. Web site: http://www.bc.edu/bc_org/avp/soe/cihe.

Center for Nursing Research (CNR)

The CNR's central purpose is to serve as an institutional resource for faculty and students in the School of Nursing, the Boston College community, and the greater Boston nursing and health care community. Three interrelated but separate goals support the purpose of the CNR: (1) to strengthen the research productivity of faculty in the School of Nursing, (2) to increase intradisciplinary and interdisciplinary research and scholarship, and (3) to communicate research findings to facilitate research utilization in nursing practice and in educational settings. The Center serves as a repository for the Cathy J. Malek Research Collection as well as books and other materials related to quantitative and qualitative research methods, data an

Ireland, and its reputation for delivering quality programming in an inclusive environment attracts leaders from all communities and from across the political spectrum. In recent years, the Institute has applied its programming models and expertise in addressing the problems of divided societies to embrace participants from the Middle East and North Africa. The Irish Institute's 2005 programming will be in the areas of local government, journalism, nonprofit management and development, community policing, teacher education, education for cultural diversity, pub
