A Brief History of Boston College

Boston College was founded by the Society of Jesus in 1863, and is one of twenty-eight Jesuit colleges and universities in the United States. With three teachers and twenty-two students, the school opened its doors on September 5, 1864. At the outset and for more than seven decades of its first century, the College remained an exclusively liberal arts institution with emphasis on the Greek and Latin classics, English and modern languages, and with more attention to philosophy than to the physical or social sciences. Religion, of course, had

A Boston College Chronology

- 1857 Father John McElroy, S.J., purchased property in the South End of Boston for a new college.
- 1863 Gov. John A. Andrews signed the charter of Boston College, April 1. First meeting of the Boston College trustees was held on July 6.
- 1864 Boston College opened on September 5, with Father

William P. Leahy, S.J., was inaugurated as the 25th president of Boston College.

- 1997 In a rating of graduate schools, U.S. News & World Report placed Boston College Law School 22nd in its field, while the Graduate School of Social Work was ranked 14th, the School of Nursing 27th, and the School of Education 28th. In March, Father Leahy was homilist at the annual St. Patrick's Day Mass at the Cathedral of the Holy Cross.
- 1998 The formal opening of the Irish Institute and the Irish

Fall 2000	7%	91%
Fall 1999	5%	91%
Fall 1998	4%	89%
Fall 1997	4%	89%
Fall 1996	5%	87%

¹ Calculated based on those who transfer out in good standing. To be in good standing, as defined by the Office of Student Services, a student must ordinarily maintain a cumulative average as mandated by their college and must not fall more than two courses behind the total number of courses a student of their status is expected to have completed. Any student who is permitted by the deans to continue enrollment in a full-time undergraduate program is considered to be in good standing.

² Calculated based on graduation rate at 150% of normal time.

Quest: The Library Information System

John J. Burns Library of Rare Books and Special Collections

The University's special collections, including the University's Archives, are housed in the Honorable John J. Burns Library, located in the Bapst Library Building, north entrance. These distinguished and varied collections speak eloquently of the University's commitment to the preservation and dissemination of human knowledge. The Burns Library is home to more than 200,000 volumes, some 15,000,000 manuscripts, and important collections of architectural records, maps, art works, photographs, films, prints, artifacts, and ephemera. These materials are housed in the climate-controlled, secure environment of Burns either because of their rarity or because of their importance as part of a special collection. While treated with special care, these resources are available for use at Burns to all qualified students, faculty, and researchers. Indeed, their us

Connors Family Learning Center

The Connors Family Learning Center is a comprehensive, inclusive resource serving all of the University's students and faculty. The mission of the Center is to enhance teaching and learning across the University. One of the CFLC's three professional staff members assists students with learning disabilities, helping to ensure their academic success at Boston College. The Center also sponsors seminars, workshops, and discussions for faculty and graduate teaching fellows on strategies for successful teaching and learning. To address the needs of the great majority of Boston College students, the Center provides tutoring for more than 60 courses, including calculus, statistics, biology, chemistry, nursing, accounting, classical and foreign languages, English as a Second Language, and writing (All CFLC tutors are recommended and approved by their relevant academic departments; most are graduate students, juniors, or seniors.). Tutoring and all other academic support services are free of charge to all Boston College students and instructors. The CFLC, which opened its doors in September 1991, is located on the second floor of O'Neill Library in the Eileen M. and John M. Connors, Jr. Learning Center.

The McMullen Museum of Art

The Charles S. and Isabella V. McMullen Museum of Art aims to increase understanding of the visual arts, to encourage inquiry, and to enrich learning through the display of a notable permanent collection and special exhibitions of international importance. The Museum occupies two floors of Devlin Hall. Spacious galleries with movable walls provide flexible exhibition spaces that rival venues in larger museums. The Museum maintains an active special exhibition program, bringing outstanding works from around the world to Chestnut Hill. The Museum organizes public lectures, symposia, workshops, film series, and gallery tours to accompany current exhibitions. Begun in the nineteenth century, the University's permanent collection contains works that span the history of art from Europe, Asia, and the Americas. Outstanding among them are Gothic and Baroque tapestries, Italian paintings of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, American landscape pa

Research & Sponsored Projects

Research and Sponsored Projects

A total of 328 proposals were submitted in FY2007. The amount of funding requested for the total project period for these proposals was $138,668,358. In FY2007, Boston College received $45.2 million in funding for research and sponsored programs activity, based upon receipt of 352 funding actions. Overall, Boston College faculty members continue to be successful in securing external funds. In addition, there is a greater number of faculty working with the Office for Sponsored Programs to secure external funding from both Federal and non-Federal sponsors.
