

The Smart Guide to Getting Done:

Some Tips for Getting through Your
BC Sociology Graduate Degree

Department of Sociology

Boston College

June 2022

TABLE OF CONTENTS

TABLE OF CONTENTS	2
MESSAGE FROM THE GRADUATE STUDIES COMMITTEE	3
THE FIRST YEAR.....	4
Selecting Courses.....	4
Required Courses	4
Elective Courses.....	5
Readings & Research Courses.....	5
Internships	6
Getting through Statistics	6
Deciding Whether to Do an MA Thesis/Paper	6
Job Opportunities for MA Students	7
Being a Teaching Assistant	7
External Funding for M.A. and Ph.D. Students.....	7
Getting Advice.....	8
On Being Holistic	8
THE SECOND YEAR.....	9
The MA thesis /Paper.....	9
Presenting Your Research	10
APPLYING TO PH.D. PROGRAMS	11
THE THIRD YEAR.....	12
Finishing Your area exams While Simultaneously Finishing Your Coursework	12
Choosing between Journal Articles and Take-Home Exams	12
Time	12
Your Career Plans	13
Some Tips for Doing Take-Home Exams	13
Some Tips for Choosing Specialty Areas	14
Some Tips for Preparing Publishable Articles	14
GETTING THROUGH THE DISSERTATION	16
Looking Ahead	16
Getting Started.....	16
The Dissertation.....	17
Job Placement	18
Finishing Up	18

MESSAGE FROM THE GRADUATE STUDIES COMMITTEE

THE FIRST YEAR

Internships

Getting through Statistics

Deciding Whether to Do an MA Thesis/Paper

all students who want to complete a thesis/paper must register for SOCY7711

Job Opportunities for MA S tudents

Getting A dvice

THE SECOND YEAR

The MA thesis /Paper

A

THE THIRD YEAR

Your Career Plans

GETTING THROUGH THE DISSERTATION

•

Job Placement

